December 12, 1981

To The Members of the City Council
City of Fort Wayne, Indiana

Dear City Council Members:

Presented before you tonight is a proposal for your consideration granting pay increases for the year 1982, for all non-exempt Civil City and City Utility employees. As we are all aware, a number of City Utility employees did receive mid-year merit increases, myself included.

Unfortunately, what was presented to the public and perceived to be "secret" unauthorized increases given only to a chosen few was a gross misinterpretation of facts.

Merit increases have historically been a necessary management tool and have been given routinely from one administration to the next, whether it be exempt or non-exempt employees.

Having one specific department singled out among all City departments in the manner in which it was is an unfortunate situation that affects a number of well deserving people. Because I happen to have the label of "sister-in-law to the Mayor" tacked on to my name, and was an active participant in the Mayor's election campaign, I tend to be more newsworthy than just any City employee. Because of these terrible afflictions which are totally unrelated to job performance or ability, it is still an issue to be dealt with realistically.

My commitment to my job, my staff, and the people I represent means more to me than any additional salary increase that I might be granted for 1982. Therefore, I am requesting no additional increase for the year 1982.

Sincerely,

Connie L. Reed, Associate Director
Personnel/Labor Relations

December 15, 1981

To the Members of the City Council
City of Fort Wayne, Indiana

Dear City Council Members:

As you are aware, unwarranted and unjustified innuendos relative to merit increases to certain employees of the Personnel Department, myself included, were the topic of discussion in the Fort Wayne City Newspapers.

It seems that these routine and actually merit increases based on performance, were portrayed as political pay offs, rather than what they were.

I, by innuendo, have been accused of receiving a merit increase because of my position as National Democratic Committeewoman. I feel very badly about this perception being portrayed to the public. I have had 26 years of experience in various phases of personnel. I feel very justified in receiving the additional compensation for the duties that I perform for the City of Fort Wayne, but also feel that the implications of unearned and "political pay offs" are not worth accepting the additional compensation. Therefore, I respectfully request at this time that no additional increase for the year of 1982 be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Ruthie Ruderman, Employment
Specialist
City of Fort Wayne
